REVEALED COMES TO INMAN PARK'S ONE TWELVE GALLERY

March 10, 2010 — ATLANTA, Ga. — One Twelve Gallery in the Stove Works of Inman Park will host Revealed, works on paper by Kevin McGannon, Suzy Schultz and Dan Willis.

Kevin McGannon, a native of Grant Park, uses watercolor to bring forth the complex expressions of perhaps nature's most studied animal: the bird. McGannon, influenced by his experience restoring the natural history prints of James Audubon and others, illustrates the birds he observes as messengers between the earth we know and the transcendental world.

Atlanta's Suzy Schultz has painted full-time since 1996 but has had little formal training. She is the winner of the Gold Award from Watercolor Magic's Watermedia showcase and has appeared in many galleries and magazines. Her raw sketches in Revealed outline the details of normal human life.

"The quiet moments of everyday things," Schultz says, "hold great drama, beauty, mystery."

Dan Willis (Seeking the Undercurrent, pictured) uses rich textures and detail to summon life from the canvas. His figures go about ordinary life with the dignity of kings, embodying the struggle of mankind with both our environment and ourselves.

Revealed will begin Friday, March 26th from 6:00-8:00 pm with an artists' reception open to the public. The show will run from March 26th through May 23rd.

One Twelve Gallery is located inside City Church—Eastside, in Suite 5 of the Stove Works, at 112 Krog St., Atlanta, GA 30307. The gallery is open Thursday-Saturday 11-4, Sunday 9-1, and by appointment.
