ONE TWELVE GALLERY PRESENTS ROOTS

Atlanta, Ga. — One Twelve Gallery in the Stove Works of Inman Park presents Roots, a photography exhibition featuring botanical-themed works by three Atlanta artists.

Susannah Masarie has traveled and photographed extensively around the U.S. and the world. A conservationist and lover of the outdoors, Masarie uses photography to capture lovely but minute details that often go overlooked.

Photographer and Wisconsin native Gail Des Jardin uses her camera to capture the nuances of scenes and places that might otherwise be forgotten. Des Jardin specializes in landscape photography and botanical portraiture.

Photographer Cindy Sheffield Michaels is a native Mississippian who now calls Decatur home. Michaels' current passion is macrophotography—a technique that renders tiny details larger than life.

Roots opens Friday, February 10 with an artists' reception from 7 to 9 pm that is free and open to the public.

One Twelve Gallery is located inside City Church Eastside, in Suite 5 of the Stove Works Lofts, at 112 Krog Street, Atlanta, GA 30307. The gallery is open Tuesday through Friday from 11am to 4pm and by appointment.
